

Publications Officer
Ellie Winter
e.winter@westernsydney.edu.au

Student Editor (2026) Vacancies

Job Title	Reporter   All Teams
Number of Positions	TBD
Applications Open	06 October 2025
Applications Close	26 October 2025
Location	Flexible, the editorial team will be based at Parramatta South
Eligibility	Are a current Western Sydney University student
Skills & Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Microsoft Teams,</li><li>• Microsoft Word, and</li><li>• Microsoft 365 (including Outlook), relevant training can be provided if unfamiliar</li></ul> Reporters are required to complete all assigned training.

This student leadership role is an opportunity to build your reputation and portfolio as a journalist, writer, or designer.

The graduate employability skills and knowledge you will develop as a student reporter can give you a competitive advantage when progressing your career.

Responsibilities

The W'SUP News reporter role are W'SUP News' primary writers, journalists, and columnists, not an editorial team member. Reporters are recurring contributors for W'SUPNews that submit work either:

- On commission, for instance upon editor's requested for a particular story, event, or purpose.
- For recurring columns, consisting of opinion pieces and content pertaining to a specific group.

Reporters differ from contributors by building an ongoing relationship with the editorial team.

Reporters are invited to a monthly publications meeting with the editorial team, but attendance is not mandatory.

Professional standards are expected regarding responsiveness, constructive feedback, and development.

HEAD TO OUR RECRUITMENT
PAGE HERE

